The evidence provided must minimally establish that you have sufficient funds to cover your travel, first year tuition fees and expenses while in Canada (as well as costs for your dependents, if applicable).

Applicants using the Student Direct Stream (SDS)

The Student Direct Stream (SDS) provides a streamlined study permit application process for students with English or French language abilities who will study at an eligible Canadian college or university. In place of most financial documents, qualifying applicants must submit a Guaranteed Investment Certificate (GIC) from a participating Canadian financial institution. Applicants must also do their medical examination upfront and pay their tuition fees for their first year. This streamlining allows us to provide applicant with a service standard of 30 days, rather than 60 days.

How do I qualify?

To qualify, you must:

- Study at a post-secondary Designated Learning Institution
- Have the following language abilities:
 - IELTS test result (issued within the last two years) with a minimum band of 6 or higher for each ability (Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking)
 - OR
 - TEF test result (issued within the last two years) with a minimum score of B2 (NCLC 7) for each ability (at least 310 for expression orale, 249 for compréhension de l'oral, 207 for compréhension de l'écrit, and 310 for expression écrite)
 - OR
 - Have a Canadian High School diploma from a recognized Canadian-curriculum high school
- Secure a Guaranteed Investment Certificate (GIC) from a participating Canadian financial institution; instructions on how to apply can be found online:
 - Scotiabank: www.scotiabank.com/studentgicprogram
 - CIBC: www.cibc.com/isbo
- Pay your first year of tuition fees upfront,
- Undergo a medical examination before submitting your application, AND
- Use a Visa Application Centre (VAC) to submit your application.

NOTE: Applicants who are seeking admission to English preparatory courses (ESL, EAP, or Intensive English) are not eligible for this program.

Financial Support

- According to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada guidelines, a single person without dependents will require approximately $10,000 CAD per year, not including tuition fees, to cover living expenses. This requirement is fulfilled by purchasing a Guaranteed Investment Certificate (GIC) from a participating Canadian financial institution. There are currently two participating banks: Scotia Bank and the CIBC.
- In addition to the GIC, you must provide evidence that you have paid the tuition fees for your first year of study.

Am I guaranteed a study permit if I choose to apply through SDS?

No. The SDS provides a streamlined application process but you must still meet all the requirements for a study permit. Financial documents are only one factor in a visa officer's decision. The Guaranteed Investment Certificate (GIC) reduces the amount of financial documents that you and your family are required to submit in support of your study permit application but does not guarantee an approval of your study permit application.

What happens if my study permit application is refused?

You will be able to apply to the bank that issued your Guaranteed Investment Certificate (GIC) for a full refund of your GIC.

What happens if I purchase a Guaranteed Investment Certificate (GIC) but do not meet the other requirements for the Student Direct Stream?

If you do not meet the other requirements for the Student Direct Stream, you can apply through the Regular Stream.

In addition to the documents required for all applicants (Regular and SDS stream), you must submit the following required documents:
