

Submit an application for a work permit for the Francophone Mobility program

Procedure

- 1 Once you receive your 7-digit offer of employment number, create your secure Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) account at Canada.ca/franco-mobility and click on “Start your application.”
- 2 Complete your application, gather the necessary documents, and make sure you answer the following questions correctly:
 - “How long are you planning to stay in Canada?”
 - Depending on the offer of employment, choose “Temporarily – more than 6 months” or “Temporarily – less than 6 months.”
 - “I have a job offer and my employer gave me an offer of employment number or labor market impact assessment (LMIA) number (or proof that my employer applied for the LMIA).”
 - Answer “Yes” and enter the offer of employment number.
 - “What type of work permit do you want to apply for?”
 - Answer “Other – LMIA exemption.”
- 3 Finalize your request and upload the following documents:
 - proof of your French language skills (oral expression and oral comprehension at a Canadian language benchmark level 5 or higher)
 - your qualifications for employment (experience, training)
 - your prior medical examination, if applicable
- 4 Pay the applicable fees for the permit application and for providing biometric data.
- 5 Apply for a permit or visa for family members, if applicable.
- 6 Follow the instructions received in your secure IRCC account for providing biometric data to a visa application center.
- 7 Check processing times.

Note: If your job is classified under the training, education, experience and responsibilities category 0 or 1, your application may be eligible for expedited processing.
- 8 If your application is accepted, you will receive a letter of introduction in your account that must be printed and presented at a Canadian port of entry.
